

Submission Type: Rule Change

Reference: Real-time data for consumers

Organisation: nil

How does putting a charge on consumers for you to gain access to meter information provide cheaper power to consumers?

This proposal has all the hallmarks of a bureaucracy out of control and 1984.

God help Australia if you think this is the way forward.