Division 1 Rules consequential on the making of the National Energy Retail Amendment (Minor Rule 1) Rule 2025

1 Definitions

In this Division:

Amending Rule means the National Energy Retail Amendment (Minor Rule 1) Rule 2025.

effective date means the date on which Schedule 4 of the Amending Rule commences.

relevant customer means a small customer of the retailer with a standard retail contract in effect between that customer and the retailer.

required alteration means the amendments required by Schedule 1 of the Amending Rule to standard retail contracts.

2 Retailers to notify customers of required alteration

- (1) As soon as possible after the effective date, retailers must notify relevant customers of the required alteration.
- (2) A notice issued under subrule (1) must:
 - (a) specify the nature of the required alteration;
 - (b) specify the date on which the required alteration takes effect, which must be determined in accordance with rule 3(2) of this Division; and
 - (c) include an explanation that while the required alteration does not take effect until the date determined in accordance with rule 3(2) of this Division, the amendment to the Rules to which the required alteration relates takes effect on 1 June 2025.

3 Variation date - standard retail contracts

- (1) As soon as possible after the effective date, and no later than 1 September 2025, retailers must make the required alteration to their standard retail contracts.
- (2) Alterations made under subrule (1) must take effect on a date to be determined by the retailer in accordance with section 28(5) of the Law that is no later than 1 September 2025.
