

Notices under National Electricity Law

The Australian Energy Market Commission (AEMC) gives notice under the National Electricity Law (NEL) of the following matters.

The AEMC has determined to delay the commencement date for the National Electricity Amendment (Reallocations) Rule 2007 from 22 February 2007 to 31 May 2007, and therefore under clause 20 of Schedule 2 to the NEL, has amended:

1. the final determination for the National Electricity Amendment (Reallocations) Rule 2007; and
2. the Rule to be made, known as the National Electricity Amendment (Reallocations) Rule 2007.

Under section 103, the making of the National Electricity Amendment (Reallocations) Rule 2007 No.1. All provisions commence on 31 May 2007.

Under sections 95 and 96, Hydro Tasmania has requested the making of the proposed National Electricity Amendment (Efficient Dispatch of Regulation Services) Rule 2007. The proposal seeks to amend the rules relating to the dispatch of regulation services which form part of market ancillary services (also known as Frequency Control Ancillary Services). The AEMC intends to expedite the making of this Rule subject to any objections (with written reasons). For this proposal:

- objections must be received by 8 March 2007;
- submissions must be received by 26 March 2007;
- objections and submissions should be forwarded to submissions@aemc.gov.au

The AEMC publishes all submissions on its website subject to a claim of confidentiality. Further details on the above matters are available on the AEMC's website www.aemc.gov.au All documents in relation to the above matters are published on the AEMC's website and are available for inspection at the offices of the AEMC.
