

Received 5 April 2021 via AEMC website contact us form

Rebecca Bond

everittbond@gmail.com

0438725675

I am concerned that I will be charged for feeding electricity into the grid. Can it be considered that instead there is no income rather than a charge? Is the AEMC trying to slow the uptake of solar panels? What year is expected that the grid will be able to cope with the change to solar feed in?
Thank you