

Received by AEMC website contact us form

10 April 2021

theodorus johannes Kuiters

theo.kuiters@yahoo.com.au

0407957970

Does the aemc wish that owners of roof tops form a consortium so that they can bargain for a better deal or to form a group so as the be of a viable size to be able to take legal action against the aemc over its unfair actions and giving unfair advantage to fossil fuel power producers The government promoted the need for roof top solar there was never any mention of you having the right to introduce fees for the benefit of a third party